ALL THIS INFORMATION WAS CAREFULLY INVESTIGATED DURING 12/23/2025 - 12/25/2025

I AM NOT ASSOCIATED WITH THE AFC, UTTP, AXXELET, ANY FPE HATE GROUP, OR ANYONE IN PARTICULAR. I AM SOLO.

Note: While this report covers topics previously mentioned in a community awareness document, all technical evidence (including Twitter API metadata and visual forensic analysis of current social media interactions) was independently verified or discovered by the author of this report.

This document serves as a comprehensive investigative report into the online history, digital footprint, and behavioral patterns of the artist known as Enigmaverse (also known as @circlesaroundu, Edgyaludon, MAG-S, and TheEdgyVerse).

The following findings are based on a synthesis of visual evidence, forensic metadata, and archived social media interactions.

THE ENIGMAVERSE

Subject: Enigmaverse (25-year-old Digital Artist)
Status: Verified History of "Rebranding" and Fandom Manipulation

1. IDENTITY AND ALIAS VERIFICATION

Investigation successfully linked several disparate identities back to a single individual. The identity trail is established through shared watermarks ("Agency Torment"), consistent Korean-language doodles, and self-admissions across platforms.

Today

Hi, norilian, and excuse me again. I saw a message on the wiki's talk page from someone who was tried to archive my old drawings. I would like to apologize for being so harsh to them, but I don't have an account on that site so I can't comment them. I hope you can tell them that I understand what they were thinking and apologize for being so sensitive.

Oh but please tell them STILL not to archive them (because I think my words might be misunderstood)

Hello everyone from r/madnesscombat! A misunderstanding has arisen. This drawing is correct by me, I use a different nickname for my Twitter account than here. I wish I had given you time to explain... I joined this fandom yesterday and I want to share the fun with you... forgive me!!

2023-Mid 2025 (FPE Fandom): Rebranded as Edgyaludon and currently Enigmaverse, her Twitter being circlesaroundu.

Conclusion: The subject has a documented pattern of "fandom hopping"—leaving a community once a controversy reaches a breaking point, deleting evidence, and rebranding to attract a new, uninformed audience.

2. THE DIGITAL FOOTPRINT (FORENSIC EVIDENCE)

The most significant find of this investigation was the extraction of raw Twitter API Metadata (JSON). This evidence moves the claims from "opinion" to "technical fact."

ORIGINAL TWEET https://x.com/Alex99156080/status/1572287184387952640

IF THE TWEET IS GONE, HERE IS PROOF IT EXISTED IN NITTER ARCHIVE.IS:

The Minus8 Interaction: Metadata confirms that on September 20, 2022, the account @NSFWment was part of a thread involving the controversial artist Minus8 (@minuspal) and a Downloader Bot.

Enigma knows who the original artist is, is in this tweet on their account, which was deleted shortly after.

"This animated like Gacha slop"
"Tweening is low-effort"
"Are you minus8?"
"This animated like bowser fart gif"
Motion Tween Animator

Intent: The use of a downloader bot is a "smoking gun." It disproves the "clueless accident" defense, suggesting a deliberate desire to save/archive specific NSFW media involving child-aged characters (e.g., Mandy from Billy & Mandy).

On Twitter, when you see a reply like that, the names listed are the people the user is replying to. Because @NSFWment (Enigma) is in that list, it means Enigma had posted or Quote-Tweeted something, and this other user (WhiteAlphaKing69) was replying to her post to trigger the @DownloaderBot. Since @minuspal (Minus8) is also tagged, it indicates that the media being downloaded was the Minus8 art (the Mandy art).

The logic is that for a bot to be used on Enigma's post, Enigma had to have shared the media first. You don't "accidentally" retweet something that stays up long enough for people to tag downloader bots in the replies. It suggests she didn't just "click a button by mistake", she made the content available on her profile for others to see and save.

"Non-Con" Engagement: Verified screenshots show the subject retweeting posts celebrating "non-consensual dynamics" (sexualized rape). Despite the subject's claim of a language barrier, the terminology used in these posts was explicit and standard within NSFW subcultures.

3. STAFFING AND COMMUNITY RISKS

A critical component of the current "Enigmaverse" brand is the composition of her moderation team and inner circle.

Minor Involvement: Investigation of current staff (2025/24/12, Discord/Social Media) revealed that a 25-year-old adult is employing/directing minors as young as 15 and 17 in a moderation capacity.

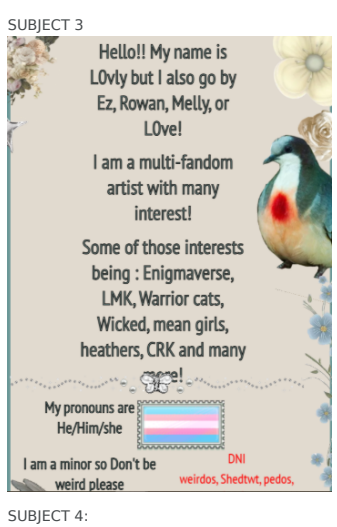
SUBJECT 3



Hello!! My name is L0vly but I also go by Ez, Rowan, Melly, or L0ve!

I am a multi-fandom artist with many interest!

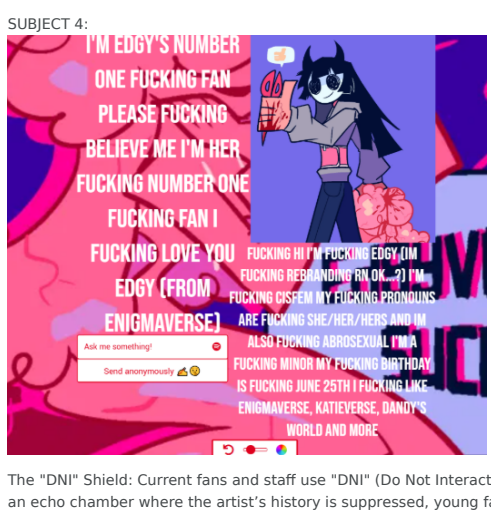
Some of those interests being : Enigmaverse, LMK, Warrior cats, Wicked, mean girls, heathers, CRK and many more!

My pronouns are He/Him/she

I am a minor so Don't be weird please

DNI
weirdos, Shedtwt, pedos,

SUBJECT 4:



I'M EDGY'S NUMBER ONE FUCKING FAN PLEASE FUCKING BELIEVE ME I'M HER FUCKING NUMBER ONE FUCKING FAN I FUCKING LOVE YOU EDGY (FROM ENIGMAVERSE)

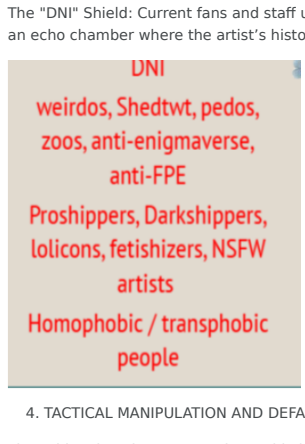
The "DNI" Shield: Current fans and staff use "DNI" (Do Not Interact) lists to block anyone bringing up the creator's past. This creates an echo chamber where the artist's history is suppressed, young fans are taught to view evidence-based criticism as "harassment."



DNI
weirdos, Shedtwt, pedos, zoos, anti-enigmaverse, anti-FPE
Proshippers, Darkshippers, lolicons, fetishizers, NSFW artists
Homophobic / transphobic people

4. TACTICAL MANIPULATION AND DEFAMATION

The subject has demonstrated a sophisticated ability to "counter-attack" critics through a strategy known as DARVO (Deny, Attack, and Reverse Victim and Offender).

The Axxelet Incident: Evidence suggest the subject utilized potentially faked Discord screenshots to label a 16-year-old minor (Axxelet) as a "predator" to discredit their criticism. Visual analysis of these screenshots showed technical glitches (text alignment and font weight) consistent with manual editing.

This has gone too far. FPE fans will try anything to defend a literal child predator and blame it on me. Eni (Enigmaverse) is defaming me with a fake screenshot. I'm 16. I never said what's being spread. The accusation is false, and targeting a minor like this is defamation.

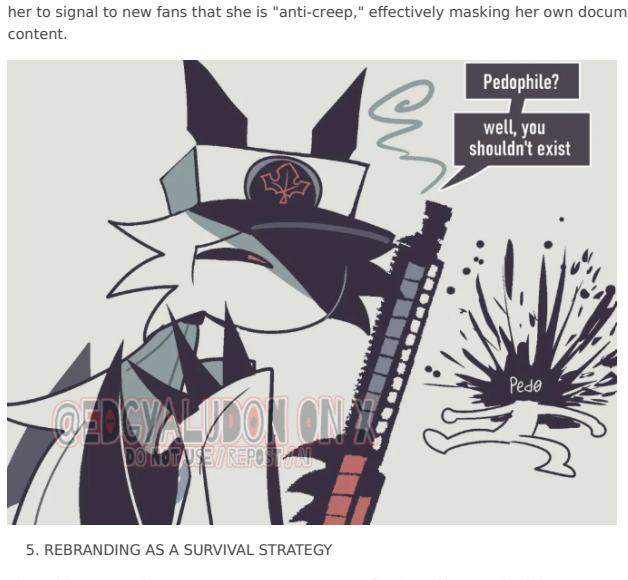
(I am not defending this guy; this is evidence of the faked screenshots.)

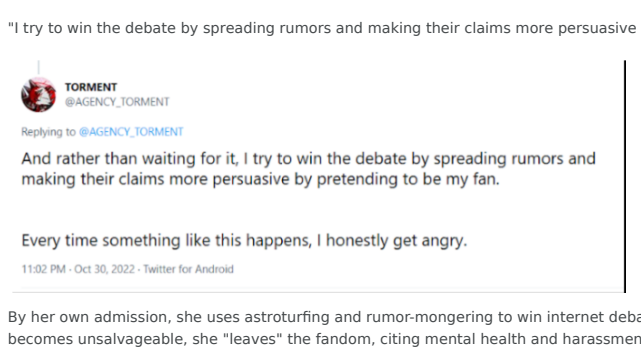
Performative Morality: The subject produces "vigilante" art (e.g., her characters shooting "pedos") to build a social shield. This allows her to signal to new fans that she is "anti-creep," effectively masking her own documented history of engaging with similar taboo content.



5. REBRANDING AS A SURVIVAL STRATEGY

The subject's October 2022 tweet serves as a confession of her methodology:

"I try to win the debate by spreading rumors and making their claims more persuasive by pretending to be my fan."



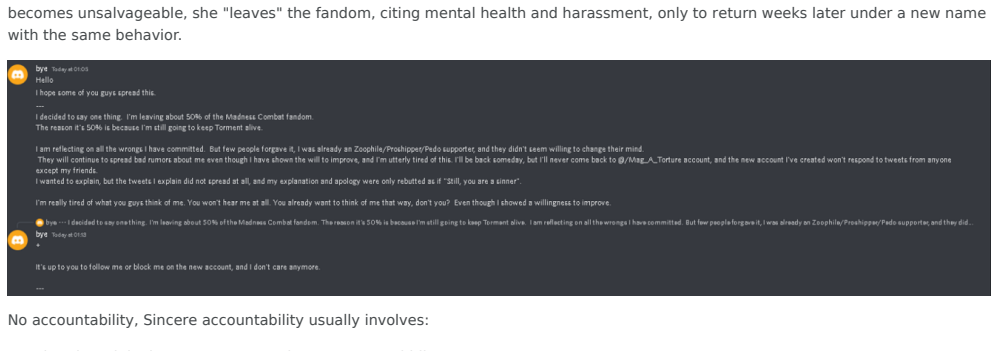
TORMENT
@AGENCY_TORMENT
Replying to @AGENCY_TORMENT

And rather than waiting for it, I try to win the debate by spreading rumors and making their claims more persuasive by pretending to be my fan.

Every time something like this happens, I honestly get angry.

11:02 PM · Oct 30, 2022 · Twitter for Android

By her own admission, she uses astroturfing and rumor-mongering to win internet debates. When the reputation of a current alias becomes unsalvageable, she "leaves" the fandom, citing mental health and harassment, only to return weeks later under a new name with the same behavior.



bye Today at 01:05
Hello
I hope some of you guys spread this.

I decided to say one thing. I'm leaving about 50% of the Madness Combat fandom.
The reason it's 50% is because I'm still going to keep Torment alive.

I am reflecting on all the wrongs I have committed. But few people forgave it, I was already an Zoophile/Proshipper/Pedo supporter, and they didn't seem willing to change their mind.
They will continue to spread bad rumors about me even though I have shown the will to improve, and I'm utterly tired of this. I'll be back someday, but I'll never come back to @/Meg_A_Torture account, and the new account I've created won't respond to tweets from anyone except my friends.
I wanted to explain, but the tweets I explain did not spread at all, and my explanation and apology were only rebutted as if "Still, you are a sinner".

I'm really tired of what you guys think of me. You won't hear me at all. You already want to think of me that way, don't you? Even though I showed a willingness to improve.

bye Today at 01:05
It's up to you to follow me or block me on the new account, and I don't care anymore.

No accountability, Sincere accountability usually involves:

Keeping the original account open to show you aren't hiding.

Clearly addressing the specific actions (e.g., "I shouldn't have downloaded that art").

Educating your audience on why those actions were wrong.

Reminder: Axxelet, who made false call out doc of Katie is a actual ped0. there will be many people who will come forward with evidence for that.

real criminals always try to bring up the past of popular people to cover up their sins lol

As you've been told several times Eni has in fact learned from that mistake, which was years ago btw, and has actively changed herself to be the better person she is today!! However has Axxelet yet...?👀

This has gone too far. FPE fans will try anything to defend a literal child predator and blame it on me. Eni (Enigmaverse) is defaming me with a fake screenshot. I'm 16. I never said what's being spread. The accusation is false, and targeting a minor like this is defamation. https://t.co/PkesFqM0XQ

When confronted with verifiable digital footprints (such as the metadata or the NSFW history), Enigma consistently frames the evidence as "expired" or "resolved mistakes." This tactic relies on the audience's willingness to prioritize the subject's current "reformed" persona over the technical record.

Enigma's own "proof" against the minor Axxelet shows text-alignment and font-rendering glitches consistent with manual editing, Axxelet points this out, Enigma says back:

"How could two people coincidentally use the same pfp?"

You see, in Discord, It is incredibly easy to change a profile picture in the image editor, and someone could have changed their profile picture to match Axxelet's. It is much harder to fake the alignment and font-rendering glitches that Axxelet pointed out.

Enigma successfully dismissed the initial investigative document by labeling its promoters as "groomers" or "criminals." By making the source of the information socially radioactive, she ensured that her young fanbase would not read the actual data contained within the report.

Enigma (an adult) frequently utilizes her seniority and massive platform to infantilize her critics (minors), telling them they are "not qualified" to speak. This creates a power imbalance where the "popularity" of the subject outweighs the "facts" of the investigation.

FINAL VERDICT

While the original "Expose Doc" was written with a clear moral bias, the technical evidence provided within it is sound.

The artist Enigmaverse is an adult who has successfully navigated fandoms by exploiting the protective nature of young audiences. She relies on the fact that her fans—mostly teenagers—lack the digital literacy to find her deleted metadata or the maturity to see through her performative morality.

The Evidence Confirms:

Intentional engagement with "proship" and "non-con" content.

Deliberate manipulation of her digital trail through rebranding.

Use of minors as a social shield and moderation force.

Weaponized defamation against critics to protect her platform.

This report is intended for awareness only. The patterns identified here are common in predatory online cycles where "clout" is used to shield individuals from accountability.
